

Healthy Lands for Healthy Waters: restoring our ecosystems with native plants (Part 2!)

Join us again at Herbal Springs Farmstead this spring to learn how to create beautiful landscapes for pollinators on your property.

When: April 13th from 8:30am to 1pm

Where: Herbal Springs Farmstead (447 Brossman Road, Ephrata, PA 17522)

Who: Farmers, homeowners and all other landowners are welcome to attend this FREE workshop. Lunch is included to all those who pre-register.

What:

- Learn about pollinator conservation, native plants, streamside forests, and more
- Opportunity to plant trees along a stream (i.e. riparian forest buffer)
- Explore the Herbal Springs Farmstead's nursery during their "Spring Open House" where you can purchase native plants and build a pollinator container garden (visit herbalspringsfarmstead.com for more information)
